

SDI, Spiritual Directors International, is pleased to invite you on a pilgrimage to Spain in the footsteps of St. Ignatius. This Pilgrimage will follow the newly designed “Ignatian Camino,” or Ignatian Way from June 17th to the 27th, 2020. For more information, follow this link: <https://www.sdijourneys.org/spain-2020>

Kathleen McAlpin, RSM will guide an ‘eight-day retreat’ based on the Spiritual Exercises and serve as a Spiritual Director for this pilgrimage in the footsteps of Ignatius.

Kathleen McAlpin, RSM, is a member of the Institute of the Sisters of Mercy and served many years in Formation and New Membership Programs. She holds a Doctor of Ministry from the Toronto School of Theology and a Master’s in Pastoral Studies from Loyola University in Chicago. She is a graduate of the Center for Religious Development in Cambridge, MA in Spiritual Direction and Supervision. Kathleen assisted in the creation of the Spiritual Direction Program at Neumann College in Aston, PA. She created the Diploma Program in Spiritual Direction at Regis College in Toronto where she also directed the Integration for Ministry Master’s program. She is an adjunct faculty member for the Christian Spirituality Program at Creighton University in Omaha. Kathleen serves on the Spiritual Direction Formation Team at Cranleith Spiritual Center in Philadelphia which focuses on the Contemplative Tradition, the Charism of Mercy, and the art of spiritual accompaniment with those on the margins of life.
