‘Each major faith tradition holds that mercy is essential to its life, requires many words to reflect its depth, is a name for God, is one of the qualities of God lived by people every day, and is integrally connected to creation and to Earth.’

-Elizabeth Davis rsm

‘From within our “house of faith,” we are encouraged to reach out to intentionally and sympathetically interact with other systems of theological belief. If we do so, we open up the possibility of a richer appreciation of our own house of faith.’

-Peta Goldberg rsm

‘Indigenous people tell us that we are losing the sense of the sacredness of all life and that, from the magnitude of the desecration, damage and destruction of our planet, we have moved beyond climate change to fears for survival.’

-Mary Tee rsm

‘My mercy embraces all things.’

(Quran 7:156)

‘Who are we if not kin? Where is the Table where we could sit together? See us – the different – sitting as one, Halo-ed and held by our only common identity: ‘HUMAN’, By our one shared place – this green but groaning Earth…’

-Maureen Murphy rsm

‘We promote training and analysis of the reality on the issues of anti-racism, non-violence, extractivism and human trafficking. We seek to maintain a fluid communication between us as a team, with the whole community and the Institute, in order to influence personal, community and social transformation.’

-CCASA Prophetic Voice Commission

This is Mercy, this is whakawhanaungatanga right relationship which we are all called to as the whole human family together.’

-Bridget Crisp rsm

‘This Saviour’s is a richly diverse community which clearly has faith, traditions, and mercy at the heart. The inclusive nature of the school ensures that a lived faith experience is provided, and each student is valued for the unique contribution they make.’
