

Nourishing Our Mercy Roots

Sabbatical Retreat 2024

Sunday the 1st of September 2024 to Friday the 27th of September 2024

The Sabbatical Retreat is open for bookings! This four-week gentle retreat from Sunday the 1st of September 2024 to Friday the 27th of September 2024 will balance presentations, workshops, day trips and reflective time in Catherine's house and the Sacred Garden. Participants will be led on a journey to explore our Mercy heritage, have access to spiritual direction, and will be provided with creative and meaningful materials for contemplation and renewal. Weekends will be free for participants to immerse themselves in Irish culture.

Programme Fee & Retreat Package

The programme fee for a Residential stay is: €4,550. The cost of the programme includes accommodation at Baggot Street and all meals. Stipends will be provided for occasional dinners out. Participants will receive a welcome packet with a prepaid local transportation card, visitor passes to local museums and churches, and access cards and information for day trips to Irish and Mercy heritage sites. Optional pilgrimages to Knock Shrine and Glendalough is included.

For further information please contact Sr. Margaret Daly on the Heritage & Spirituality team on: programmes@mercyinternational.ie