

The Poetry of Loss (before we go on...)

with Anne Francis

A pause to gently acknowledge the losses of the past year, through poetry and reflection.

This year has been characterised by loss – people have suffered sickness, death and bereavement; incomes have been affected, families have been separated, weddings postponed; many other losses, large and small. Where are you now?

Online. June 19th, 10.30am-12,30pm.

All welcome.
