

Artistic Response: ‘The Compassionate Heart of the Cosmos’

Corlita Bonnarens rsm (Americas)

I believe that “the Feminine” gives birth to life in many forms. In this watercolor painting, I tried to give expression to the Feminine and Creation.

Only when I added (at a later time) streaks of white to shape a heart, did I realize that power and energy emanate from that merciful, compassionate heart—thus the title of the painting: “The Compassionate Heart of the Cosmos”.
