

Catherine's Spaces and Places

September 1st – 6th 2024

Participants will be led on a journey to explore our Mercy Heritage. They will have the opportunity to experience guided reflective time in Catherine's House, exploring her spaces and places. This week will also include a Walking Tour of Catherine's Dublin visiting places that are associated with Catherine McAuley.

Please email programmes@mercyinternational.ie for further information including pricing.

Some quotes from previous participants:

"I loved the gentle unfolding of this week."

"Catherine Mc Auley came to life for me during this week."

"A simple "thank you" is inadequate for what I experienced during the week."