

WORLD DAY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE

Saturday, February 20 2021

The Mercy World recognises the fundamental importance of empowering women in leadership to achieve justice, peace, development, and equality.

The Mercy Emerging Leaders Fellowship enables women to examine contemporary social and environmental justice issues, and develop leadership skills to be future Mercy leaders around the world.

Objectives include:

- Connecting women from diverse backgrounds
- Strengthening women's voices and participation
- Establishing strong relationships with Mercy Mentors
- Encouraging engagement in theological reflection, social analysis and human rights advocacy
- Providing opportunities for participation in grassroots initiatives and in advocacy at the global arena
- Equipping women to undertake research projects that educate, inform and provide specific actions for justice

*Planting the Seeds for Women's Empowerment
as Change Makers*

Giving Voice
to Mercy

Degradation of Earth/
Water/Climate Justice/
Eco Spirituality

The Sustainable Development Goals/
2030 Agenda

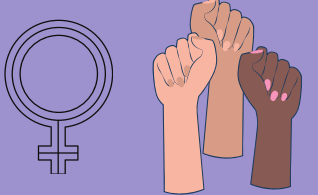

Migration

Poverty/
Social Inequality

Women & Ethical Leadership

Mercy Health
& Medical Missions

Human Trafficking

Peace,
Reconciliation
& Justice

The inaugural group of the Mercy Global Action Emerging Leaders Fellowship will graduate on the 20th of Feb, 2021

Research presentations will be conducted via Zoom from Tuesday 16th - Thursday 18th of Feb, 2021. Register here.