Our Companions on the Journey

Professor Jim Skea is currently the Co-chair of Working Group III of the United Nations Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change which is the body for assessing the science related to climate change.

Jim is Research Councils UK Energy Strategy Fellow at Imperial College London, supporting the UK Research Councils in deciding where and how to invest their energy research resources.

Lorna Gold has more than two decades' experience of engaging faith communities on environmental, climate and economic justice. She is currently a member of the FaithInvest Team, Acting Chair of the Board of Directors of the Global Catholic Climate Movement and a member of the Vatican's COVID 19 Commission Economics Taskforce.

Lorna led a session in our Journey of Discernment 2020
Listening to the Cry of the Earth

Katherine Trebeck is a writer and wellbeing economy advocate who is a member of the Wellbeing Economy Alliance Team. Her political economist lens challenges traditional economic arguments for unending growth and encourages a focus on what most matters to people and planet, with the economy being in service of that goal. Katherine is a leading and highly respected economic voice in Scotland and globally.

Omar Haramy is an Orthodox Christian. His family has deep connections to Jerusalem and specifically to the Church of the Resurrection in Jerusalem. According to tradition, the Haramy family was among the first families in Jerusalem to announce that Jesus was no longer in the grave.

Through his work with Sabeel, Omar's tries to witness to the resurrected Christ. He is also a member of the Kairos Palestine Steering Committee.

Alison Phipps holds the UNESCO Chair in Refugee Integration through Languages and the Arts at the University of Glasgow where she is also Professor of Languages and Intercultural Studies, and Co-Convener of Glasgow Refugee, Asylum and Migration Network (GRAMNET).

Hyab Yohannes is an Eritrean refugee and researcher at the University of Glasgow and holder of the UNESCO RILA PhD Scholarship. He works formally for local charities and international organisations in Egypt including UNHCR, IOM, Africa and Middle East Refugee Assistance (AMERA) and Saint Andrew's Refugee Services (StARS).

Alison and Hyab contributed to our Advent Journey 2020
