Musings for the Journey: Mercy and the Displacement of Persons

Guiding Group

Thoughts for Musings

- Where, in this pandemic, do I hear the cry of the most vulnerable people as well as the cry of Earth?
- As I reflect on the displacement of Persons in the midst of this COVID-19 pandemic, where do I find hope?
- What change has happened in the life of our Congregation/ Institute during this pandemic that I hope continues after the pandemic ends?

In my hearing these voices and seeing these presentations on Mercy and the Displacement of Persons:

Resonance

In all the voices – theologian, artist, distinct voice, scientist, minister, global thinker, prayer maker – which voice speaks most passionately to me about Mercy and the displacement of persons?

Resistance

In all the voices, which one speaks something that I do not want to hear?

Resilience

In each voice, what do I learn about Mercy which gives me, and all of us, the courage to go on in our struggle to bring an end to the displacement of Persons?

Opportunities for Sharing:

- Who do I know who would love to see this, or part of this, process?
- How could I get it to them?
- What is something I have read or seen or heard elsewhere that really connects with this process, that's too good to keep to myself?
