

Day THIRTEEN: December 7th

Femicide

Femicide, a global problem, is a sex-based, hate crime term, broadly defined as "the intentional killing of women or girls because they are females."

Ana Clara's Story

Ana Clara was thirty and lived on the periphery of Porto Alegre, Brazil. She was in a relationship with a partner for six years and had one daughter. The relationship was very unstable and there was a lot of conflict and violence which resulted in repeated break-ups. On New Year's Eve 2007, Ana Clara was stabbed to death by her partner. What is my reaction to this true story?

UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

Goal 5: Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls

Goal 16 Significantly reduce all forms of violence and related death rates everywhere.

Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)

3 - Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security.

5 - No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment

7 - All are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to protection of the law.

CEDAW (Convention on Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women)

Articles 1-16 outline what governments must do to end discrimination against girls and women. It also lists specific areas where discrimination against girls and women must end i.e. in law, marriage, education, health care, and employment.

SAFE FROM FEAR SAFE FROM VIOLENCE

"States shall recognise, encourage and support the work of relevant NGOs and of civil society active in combating violence against women and establish effective co-operation."

(Article 9: Council of Europe's Convention on Preventing and Combating Violence Against Women.)

In 'Laudato Si' Pope Francis states:

'It is clearly inconsistent to combat trafficking in endangered species, while remaining completely indifferent to human trafficking, unconcerned about the poor, or undertaking to destroy another human being... (91)

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

is a systematic and widespread human rights violation. It cuts across age, socio-economic, educational and geographic boundaries.
